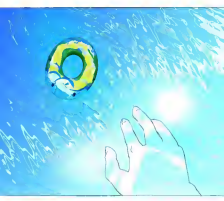
I have, when I was young,
drowned in the ocean.



the pressure that presses onto you.

that was the day I realized,
people need air to live...

so much pressure, you can't even breathe

so much pressure, you're about to die.

somehow, I
still sometimes

feel that kind of pain

when did i fall back into water?

or, don't tell me I was never saved... I'm still in the water from so long ago...

BUT I DON'T CARE ABOUT THAT. WE ALREADY HAVE THE CURE PLANNED.
